

Leadership and Governance

Designed by Buddle, this workshop equips participants with the essential skills to become effective leaders within their organisation or club.

The need

This interactive workshop is designed to help leaders strengthen their club or organisation's structure and governance.

Participants will explore key leadership and management principles, assess their current committee effectiveness, and gain practical insights into best governance practices.

Through engaging discussions and hands-on exercises, attendees will map out their organisation's structure, define roles and responsibilities, and identify concrete steps to improve leadership and governance.

By the end of the session, each participant will leave with a tailored action plan to enhance their organisation's structure and ensure a safe, well-managed environment for all.

Key features

- Establish the structure of your club/organisation including who does what. Investigate what a good club structure looks like.
- Consider good practice of governance.
- Plan ways to improve your club or organisation's leadership structure and governance.
